DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Herzog. The structure as claimed is fully anticipated by Herzog. In particular Herzog shows in Figs.1-3 a collapsible candle stand comprising:

at least one vertically-orientated rod (11), having an upper end and a lower end;

at least one horizontally-orientated ring (15), having at least one candle holder (17)

provided thereon; and means (14) for removably attaching the at least one ring (15) to the at least one rod (11).

3. Claim 19 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Crouch. The structure as claimed is fully anticipated by Crouch. In particular Crouch shows in Figs.1-5 and 11-13 a collapsible candle stand comprising:

horizontal means (17, Fig. 1) for holding a plurality of candles (15);

vertical means (12 and 40, Fig. 11) for supporting the horizontal means (17);

Art Unit: 3749

first attaching means (48, Fig. 13) for rigidly attaching the vertical together to form a tripod; and second attachment means (26 and 27, Fig. 3) for rigidly attaching the horizontal means (17, Fig. 1) to the vertical means (12 and 40, Fig. 11).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Herzog in view of Fullam.

Fullam teaches the use of a tripod structure comprising a first rod (50), a second rod (52), and a third rod (54) for the purpose of forming a free-standing candle supporting stand.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the candle stand of Herzog in the manner as taught by Fullam in order to form a free-standing candle supporting stand.

Art Unit: 3749

6. Claims 3-11 and 20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Harrison is cited to show a portable light holder.

Each of Kiesele and Barfus is cited to show a portable candle stand.

Nasmith is cited to show a tripod-supporting device.
